

SPLIT.FYI DIVORCE MAPPING TOOL

HOW TO DIVORCE MAP

The idea of divorce mapping is to visually take the overwhelm out of all the aspects of divorce by segmenting them into categories. This allows you to separate one aspect from another. Like the sample above, the best way to start is create a list of categories that pertain to your divorce. You can start brainstorming on the lines below. Once you have 6-10 main categories, then you can create list of sub-categories that go with each one.

EXAMPLE CATEGORIES / SUB-CATEGORIES

FAMILY

- Children
- Immediate Family (parents & siblings)
- Extended Family
- In-laws

WELL-BEING

- Emotional
- Physical
- Spiritual

FINANCES

- Learning About
- Managing
- Valuing

DIVORCE PROCESS

- Mediation
- Litigation
- Education

HOME

- Should and / or can I keep the house?
- Moving
- Maintenance
- Redecorating

DATING

- Dating Sites
- Ready to Date?
- What type of person do I want to date?

EX- SPOUSE

- Negotiations
- Communication
- Co- parenting

YOUR IDENTITY

- How do I show up for myself and others?
- Going from being married to being single

DIVORCE PROFESSIONALS

- Attorneys
- financial Professionals
 - CDFIA
 - Financial Advisor
 - CPA
 - Forensic
- Emotional
 - Therapist
 - Divorce Coach

SOCIAL

- Friends and their families
- Community Groups
 - Religious
 - Athletic
 - Social

WORK

- Current Job
- Finding a Job

CATEGORIES & SUB-CATEGORIES

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

